

Mirya Korelina, associate Professor of Monumental and Decorative Painting and Design Department named after V.G.Smagina, Institute of Architecture, Construction and Design, Irkutsk National Research Technical University

Korelina Mirya - designer, member of the Union of Designers of Russia, since November 2002 has been working at IRNITU at the design department, acting as the head of the OOP in the direction of 54.03.01 Design, profile "Modern Design"; is the co-head of the SNPC for the formation of the subject-spatial environment and systems of urban identity ", created for the joint professional work of the most interested students, teachers and practicing specialists.

Korelina Mirya - Laureate and Diploma-recipient of 12 international, Russian and regional festivals, competitions and exhibitions, incl. International Competitions of Diploma Works in Architecture and Design, International Exhibition "Art - project culture in the century of new informational technology", International Festivals "Architecture of Eastern Siberia", International Exhibitions "City + Design", etc. She is the author and director of more than 30 creative developments, 10 of which are realized design projects. The works performed by the applicant and / or under her supervision were exhibited at 22 exhibitions and competitions of various levels, were noted in catalogs, published in professional magazines.

Mirya K. conducts classes in the disciplines "Design", "Interior", "Design in the design of the environment", etc., supervises the diploma design, she has trained 15 students who have the titles of Laureates and Diplomas of International, Russian and City competitions, exhibitions, festivals.