

Y. Klimova Larisa Genrikhovna, was born in 1958 in Irkutsk. In 1975, she graduated from high school and entered the Irkutsk Polytechnic Institute. In 1980, she graduated from the Institute, received a degree in electrical engineering and worked in the direction of the design Institute in Irkutsk as an engineer. In 1982 she moved to work at the Department of Descriptive Geometry and Technical Drawing as a teaching assistant. Later she worked as a senior teacher. In 2006, she defended her PhD thesis "Control of technological residual stresses during the enveloping deformation of low-rigid shafts". In the same year she received the title of associate professor. In 2019, the department was renamed the Department of Engineering and Computer Graphics. From 2006 to the present, I have been working at the department as an associate professor of the department.