

PROGRAM “JOURNALISM AND COMMUNICATIONS”

BENEFITS OF THE PROGRAM

The program “Journalism and communications” is aimed at an in-depth academic training of future journalists and specialists in media communications. Our education program will not only ensure learning necessary practical skills but will also provide for an academic training, which helps develop critical-thinking skills and navigate courses and trends of the changes taking place in both modern media and society in general.

This program is implemented within the framework of the cooperation between the University and a number of partner universities and representatives of media communities.

Our program strongly focused on internships and other hands-on learning experiences. Students have a unique advantage of training on a TV channel based in INRTU. As well they have two and four weeks internships every year at some of the most prestigious news organizations in Russia and overseas.

This program provides an excellent preparation for a range of media careers as Journalists, Radio hosts and TV presenters, media analysts, bloggers, content producers and media managers. Our alumni work in media industry in Russia, China, Vietnam, Mongolia and other countries.
