

WROCLAW UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

WROCLAW UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Wrocław University of Science and Technology is a state university in Wrocław, Poland. The origins of the university date back to 1910, when the Royal Higher Technical School was established in the German Empire in the city of Breslau. Its name was changed to Technical University in 1918. IT and Telecommunication Professionals are highest paid in Wrocław. The University arranges Job Fairs and supports students' business ideas through the business incubator.

Requirements:

- Foreign passport
- Good command of English (B2)
- Good academic performance

Student's expenses:

- Visa fee
- Transportation
- Health insurance
- Accommodation
- Food
- Other

Language of instruction:
English, Polish

Tuition fee is free of charge

UNDERGRADUATE, GRADUATE AND POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

Winter semester:
October 2 – January 31

Summer semester:
February 26 – June 17

Application deadline:
May 15

Application deadline:
November 15

! CHECK THE DEADLINES AND DETAILS
AT THE INTERNATIONAL OFFICE IN ADVANCE

